3. ATTORNEY FEES IN CONTESTED MATTERS. Attorney will charge and Client agrees to pay Attorney fees of $300.00 per hour for all contested work. To save Client money, Attorney from time to time may employ paralegals to provide basic legal services, and Client agrees to pay for their services at the rate of $95.00 per hour.

4. RETAINER IN CONTESTED MATTERS. In the event this matter is or becomes contested and PRIOR to Attorney beginning work thereon, Client shall pay Attorney an initial payment of $2,500.00, which shall be a trust retainer. This initial payment is NOT an approximation of total fees, and it is likely that the Client will be required to pay additional amounts in the future. The required retainer amount shall be $2,500.00 and it shall not fall below $1,000.00. Upon notification, Client shall promptly replenish the retainer to the level indicated. Retainer payments made by credit card will be assessed a 3.0% processing fee and shall be deposited into the Attorney's client trust account. (Please note, Attorney cannot accept payment by credit card from the debtor filing bankruptcy, however, we can accept payment from a third party made on behalf of the debtor.)

5. ADMINISTRATIVE FEE. If this engagement is canceled by the Client, Attorney will charge a minimum administrative fee of $500.00. The Administrative Fee is to be incurred without an itemization of Attorney's time to cover the time in meeting with the Client, reviewing the matter, beginning a file for the Client, initial research, if any, case management, record storage, etc. If client incurs more than $400.00 in fees, then Attorney will bill actual time and no administrative fee will be assessed.

6. CLIENT'S DUTIES, DISCLOSURE AND CONFIDENTIALITY. Client agrees to furnish all information necessary to enable Attorney to complete the papers that will be filed in the case and that such information will be complete, accurate, and truthful. Attorney may also be relieved of the responsibility to represent Client if Client fails to provide information or documents in time and with sufficient adequacy to enable Attorney to respond to any inquiry. Client must attend all Court and related matters as instructed by the Court or the Attorney. Attorney and Client communications are confidential. To maintain confidentiality and to provide effective representation, all substantive Client communications shall be made directly between the Attorney and Client. Client agrees to disclose fully and accurately all facts and keep Attorney informed of all developments relating to the matter. Client agrees to cooperate fully with Attorney and to be available to attend meetings, discovery proceedings, hearings, etc. The Attorney reserves the right to withdraw from the representation if the Client does not adhere to the foregoing. Attorney may use or reveal confidences or secrets necessary to establish or collect the lawyer's fee or to defend the lawyer or the lawyer's employees or associates against an accusation of wrongful conduct. Attorney is obligated to reveal information about the client to the extent it appears necessary to prevent the client from committing an act that would result in death or serious bodily harm. Client has been advised that Attorney uses email for communication and stores documents related to client and client's personal information on servers owned and operated by third parties (in "the cloud"). Client understands outside people and organizations are known to attack internet servers and email services and obtain personal information contained therein. Attorney is not responsible in any way for third party attacks or "hacking" of any documents or personal information of Client held by Attorney and stored in the cloud or transmitted via email. MCH

7. REPRESENTATIONS OF ATTORNEY. Legal outcomes cannot be guaranteed. No Attorney, employee or agent of the Attorney has or will promise or guarantee a particular outcome on your matter. Nothing in this Engagement shall be construed as such a promise or guarantee. Although

Attorney may from time to time, for your convenience, furnish estimates of fees or costs that the Attorney anticipates will be incurred, these estimates are subject to unforeseen circumstances and are by their nature inexact. Estimates may not be considered guarantees of any kind.

8. DILIGENCE AND COMMUNICATION. Attorney shall act with reasonable diligence and promptness in representing Client. Attorney shall keep Client reasonably informed about the status of the engagement matter and promptly comply with reasonable requests for information. Attorney shall explain relevant matters to the Client to the extent reasonably necessary to permit the client to make informed decisions regarding the representation.

9. FEES. Fees for contested services rendered will be based on the reasonable value of those services as determined in accordance with the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct. Our fees will be based primarily on hourly billing rates. The time for which you will be charged will include, but will not be limited to: telephone and office conferences with the client, witnesses, consultants, court personnel and others; conferences among our legal personnel; factual investigations; legal research; responding to requests to provide information to the client or others; drafting of letters, pleadings, briefs and other documents; travel time; waiting time in court; and time in depositions and other discovery proceedings. Attorney will charge a minimum of 1.00 hour for any court appearances. Services that are provided with less than one week notice to Attorney in order to meet a deadline to prepare or participate in court or discovery, or at the request of Client, or on weekends or holidays, or between 7:00 p.m. and 6:30 a.m. may be billed at 150% of the above hourly rates. In an effort to reduce legal fees, the Attorney may use paralegal personnel. Time devoted by paralegals to Client matters is charged at hourly billing rates, which also are adjusted from time to time by the Attorney. Additionally, time is billed in tenths of an hour (.1) which represents six (6) minutes. There will be a minimum of .15 hours time billed for any service performed by the Attorney. Hourly rates may be adjusted from time to time and client will be advised in writing prior to any fee modification.

Attorney will charge a flat rate of $40.00 for parking and mileage for each appearance at court, creditors' meeting, deposition, etc. outside of Chicago but does not charge for the travel time associated with the our of Chicago matter.

11. BILLING PRACTICES. Fees and expenses will generally be billed monthly. If any payment from Client to Attorney is returned NSF, Client agrees to pay Attorney liquidated damages in the amount of $35.00 for each such occurrence and Attorney may no longer accept personal checks from Client. As a convenience to the Client, Attorney accepts payments by credit card from third parties and Client agrees to pay a 3.0% additional as and for credit card processing fees. All invoices are due upon receipt unless Client has an objection to the billing in which case Client agrees to pay promptly upon resolution of any dispute. Client shall promptly review the billing statements and respond in writing with any objections to a billing statement within seven days of receiving the statement. Failure by the Client to object within the allotted time will be deemed acceptance of the billing statement for purposes of accepting payment from the retainer. Attorney reserves the right to postpone or defer providing additional services or to discontinue its representation if Client fails to pay billed amounts when due. All fees and costs must be paid in full prior to conclusion of the proceedings.

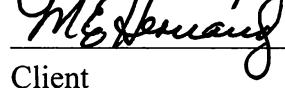

12. INDEMNITY. If any claim or action is brought against the Attorney or any personnel of the Attorney and such claim arises from your negligence or misconduct, you will hold the Attorney and its personnel harmless and indemnify them for all damages incurred.

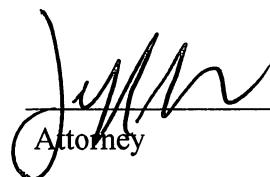

13. APPLICABLE LAW. The laws of the State of Illinois shall govern the interpretation of this Agreement.

Separate Disclosure Required by Section 527 of the Bankruptcy Code as Amended

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY

(Note: This form is mandated by statute. It may or may not correctly explain the law.)

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. The law requires an attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer to give you a written contract specifying what the attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer will do for you and how much it will cost. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information explains what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and decide which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents (Petition, Schedules, Statement of Financial Affairs, and in some cases a Statement of Intention) must be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you must attend the required first meeting of creditors, where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case, in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan, which will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you should consult someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only lawyers, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

EXHIBIT "C"

Information to the Assisted Person (Debtor) on How to Provide All Information Required by Section 521

Section 521 of the Code sets out the Debtor's duties related to the filing of a bankruptcy case. A copy of the section is attached to this writing.

As you fill out these schedules and statement of affairs, you should keep the following in mind:

1. Completing the income and expense pages accurately and completely is critical.
  - (a) To compile your income, refer to recent pay stubs and last year's income tax returns. Accounting for overtime, investment dividends, and other earnings is necessary.
  - (b) People usually pay cash for many items, such as groceries. Review your monthly expense payments and make a best estimate on cash expenditures. If you pay insurance annually, calculate the monthly cost. Attached are IRS expense allowances for the area in which you live. If your expenses exceed these, we will have to review them and perhaps make adjustments.
  - (c) When you value property you own, consider prices in the neighborhood for housing, in newspapers and car lots for automobiles, and what you would pay for furniture and clothes at a business selling such goods.
  - (d) If you have an item of special value, an appraisal may be necessary.
  - (e) When listing creditors, collect current bills and use that information for mailing addresses and balances due.
  - (f) Under the law of this state, or federal bankruptcy law, certain property may be exempt and may be retained. Attached is a copy of the state list of exemptions and also a list of property that may be exempt under federal law. Neither list is all-inclusive. If a seller has a lien on exempt property, the lien may be avoidable or you may have to pay for the property in order to keep it. After you have prepared these lists, we can review them and decide what property qualifies as exempt.

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling*15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.
Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.
- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.
Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.
- I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.
To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.
If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.
- I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:
  - Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
  - Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
  - Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.
If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.
Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.
- I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.
Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.
- I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.
To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.
If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.
- I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:
  - Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
  - Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
  - Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.
If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

Also list executory contracts on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) and on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G). Do not include any creditors with partially secured claims that are listed in Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. If more space is needed, copy the Part you need, fill it out, number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Continuation Page to this page. If you have no information to report in a Part, do not file that Part. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).
